

Notice of Privacy Practices and Financial Policy

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

1) Uses and Disclosures We will use your protected health information (PHI) for the purposes of treatment, payment and health care operations.

Treatment includes the disclosure of health information to other providers who have referred you for services or are involved in your care. This may include doctors, nurses, technicians and other physical therapists. For example, we may feel that a stroke patient we are treating would benefit from an evaluation by a speech-language pathologist to address a swallowing difficulty. The health information we share with the speech-language pathologist would be considered a treatment related disclosure.

Payment includes the disclosure of health information to your insurance company, including Medicare and Medicaid, so payment can be obtained for services rendered. Your insurance company may make a request to review your medical record to determine that your care was necessary.

Health Care Operations includes the utilization of your records to monitor the quality of care being given at our facility or for business planning activities.

Other Special Uses: Our practice may use your PHI to send you an appointment reminder, to inform you of our other health-related products and services, or to request a contribution to our charitable activities.

Uses and Disclosures Required by Law: The federal health information privacy regulations either permit or require us to use or disclose your PHI in the following ways: we may share some of your PHI with a family member or friend involved in your care if you do not object, we may use your PHI in an emergency situation when you may not be able to express yourself, and we may use or disclose your PHI for research purposes if we are provided with very specific assurances that your privacy will be protected. We may also disclose your PHI when we are required to do so by law, for example by court order or subpoena. Disclosures to health oversight agencies are sometimes required by law to report certain diseases or adverse drug reactions.

We may use and disclose health information about you to avert a serious threat to your health or safety or the health or safety of the public or others. If you are in the Armed Forces, we may release health information about you when it is determined to be necessary by the appropriate military command authorities. We may also release information about you for workers' compensation or other similar programs that provide benefits for work-related injury or illness.

Your authorization is required before your PHI may be used or disclosed by us for other purposes.

2) Your Privacy Rights

Restrictions You have the right to request restrictions on how your PHI is used, however, we are not required to agree with your request. If we do agree, we must abide by your request.

Confidential Communications You have the right to request confidential communication from us at a location of your choosing. This request must be in writing.

Access to PHI You have the right to request a copy of your medical record. You must make this request in writing and we may charge a fee to cover the costs of copying and mailing.

Amendments You have the right to request an amendment be made to your PHI, if you disagree with what it says about you. This request must be made in writing. If we disagree with you, we are not required to make the change. You do have the right to submit a written statement about why you disagree that will become part of your record. We may not amend parts of your medical record that we did not create.

Accounting of Disclosures You have the right to request an accounting of the disclosures made in the previous six years. These disclosures will not include those made for treatment, payment, or health care operations or for which we have obtained authorization.

Complaints If you feel that your privacy rights have been violated, you have the right to make a complaint to us in writing without fear of retaliation. Your complaint should contain enough specific information so that we may adequately investigate and respond to your concerns. If you are not satisfied with our response, you may complain directly to the Secretary of Health and Human Services.

Our Duty to Protect Your Privacy We are required to comply with the federal health information privacy regulations by maintaining the privacy of your PHI. These rules require us to provide you with this document, our Notice of Privacy Practices. We reserve the right to update this notice if required by law. If we do update this notice at any time in the future, you will receive a revised notice when you next seek treatment from us.

Financial Policy

Thank you for choosing Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance as your health care provider. We are sincerely committed to providing you with a successful and pleasurable treatment experience.

Please understand that payment of your bill is considered part of your treatment and that this financial policy obligates you to provide full payment of your bill. All patients are required to establish financial arrangement for payment of their account and complete all provided forms before they are treated by our staff. As a courtesy, we will verify your insurance coverage and bill your insurance provider on your behalf. However, please understand that your insurance policy is a contract between you and your insurance provider. You are responsible for any outstanding balances that are not covered by your insurance provider.

Patient Insurance: We require your co-payment and/or deductible payment at the time of treatment. In the event that your insurance changes to a plan in which Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance is not a participating provider, you will be responsible for the full amount that is billed for your services. Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance will not become involved in any disputes between you and your insurance provider regarding deductibles, co-payments, covered charges, "usual and customary" charges other than to supply factual information as requested. Many plans limit the number of visits you may receive per calendar year. This information is provided to you only as a summary of benefits and is not a waiver of your payment guarantee or an explanation of your benefits. Patients must contact their insurance company for full "disclosure" of benefits.

If you receive payment from your insurance provider for services rendered by Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance, you are required to reimburse Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance the full payment amount at the time of receipt. If you default on any balance owed to Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance and it becomes necessary for Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance to engage the services of an attorney, collection agency or other lawful method of collection, you will be responsible for the original balance owed and reimburse Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance for all costs incurred by it in the collection of said debt.

Notice of Privacy Practices and Financial Policy

I am allowing a photocopy of my signature to be used for insurance purposes. I also authorize my insurance company to pay directly to Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance the amount due me in my pending claim for insurance.

Missed Appointments: It is our mission to serve as many people as we can have the greatest impact on our community. We understand that things happen that may result in the need to cancel an appointment. If you cannot make your appointment, please call us as soon as possible, so we may offer that appointment time to someone else who needs it. Please understand we reserve the right to charge $60.00 for any missed appointments that are not cancelled at least 24 hours in advance and this fee will become the responsibility of the patient and not billed to your insurance provider.

Late Fee: A $15.00 per month late fee is assessed on all unpaid patient responsibility balances that are greater than 30 days.

Minors: The parent or guardian accompanying a minor is responsible for payment.

Auto Insurance: We will submit claims to your MedPay with your auto insurance. If you do not have MedPay, we will submit claims to your health insurance. Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance does not accept letters of protection.

Consent to Treat and Authorization to Release Information: I hereby authorize Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance, through its appropriate personnel, to perform the evaluation and treatment procedures that are deemed necessary by my physician and physical therapist in the treatment of my condition. I further authorize Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance to furnish and/or disclose my personally identifiable health information to the appropriate agencies for the purpose of billing.

I have had the opportunity to review the Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance Privacy Notice prior to signing this consent. I understand that I have the right to request restrictions on the uses and disclosures of my protected health information for treatment, payment and healthcare operations, but Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance is not required to agree to such a request. If Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance does agree to my request, the restrictions will be binding.

I have read the above Financial Policy and agree that I am responsible for the balance of my account for any professional services rendered by Next Level Physical Therapy and Athletic Performance.

Effective Date:

This Notice will take effect on June 6, 2016.

I have read and understand Next Level Physical therapy's Privacy Practices and Financial Policies.
